

Assistant Director

The primary responsibility of the Assistant Director is to help facilitate the work of the Director. This could include a wide variety of responsibilities based on the specifics of the production.

Responsibilities

- Regular meetings with the Director to talk about the script, concept, and design of the production pre-rehearsal, and the progress and development of the project while in rehearsal
- Research and or Dramaturgical work on the history, subject, and world of the play. This might include preparing dramaturgical presentations to the cast.
- Meet with director to engage and collaborate on the progress being made.
- Rehearsal work might also include staging scenes, choreography, running rehearsals in the director's absence, leading warm-ups, dialect and physical coaching.

Participation

- Attend all production and design meetings
- Attend all rehearsals