

Director

The Director is responsible for coordinating and overseeing the mounting of a live production. The responsibilities of a Director can vary widely depending on the specific needs of the production. In general, it involves assembling the production team, including designers, technicians, and performers, and collaborating with all the different elements so they are connected and working together to serve the production.

Responsibilities

- Assembling production team and work with designers to develop physical elements of the production.
- Auditioning and casting actors
- Collaborating with actors to develop their performances.
- Scheduling and leading the rehearsal process
- Choosing and interpreting the play
- Dramaturgical research
- Choreography
- Vocal and dialect coaching

Participation

- Attend all production and design meetings
- Attend all rehearsals