

WHITMAN COLLEGE

This guide provides a collection of resources that is helpful to new employees. As always, if you have any questions, need additional information, or are unsure who to contact, please feel welcome to start with Human Resources. We can be reached by phone at (509) 527-5173 or via email at hr@whitman.edu. The Human Resources office is located in Rooms 104-107 in the Memorial Building on campus.

Human Resources and Policies

Benefits

Whitman offers excellent benefits for employees. Learn more about benefits, including medical, dental, vision, 403(b) retirement plan, life insurance, and tuition remission here.

Employee Assistance Program

Whitman offers employees and dependents an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) through Cascade Centers. The EAP is a FREE and CONFIDENTIAL benefit that can assist you and your eligible family members with any personal problems, large or small. The EAP offers services like counseling, legal assistance, resource retrieval, home ownership, childcare, eldercare, petcare, identity theft, and much more.

Grievance Policy

The Grievance Policy describes the college's procedures for reporting allegations of misconduct from students, faculty, and staff. This policy explains the processes for both formal and informal proceedings. For more information, contact Telara McCullough, AVP of Human Resources, at mcculltl@whitman.edu.

Staff Handbook and Faculty Handbook

All staff employees should be familiar with content located in the Staff Handbook. Any questions can be directed to your supervisor or Human Resources.

Title IX

The Title IX federal law states: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Whitman College provides information regarding Title IX, including the college's policy, procedures, and helpful resources, online. The webpage also includes the Annual Title IX Report, contact information for Title IX Coordinators, and relevant definitions. The full Title IX Policy is available in PDF form here.

Important Resources

Emergency Information

In the case of an on-campus emergency, the most up-to-date information will be published on the Whitman College Emergency Information website. This website also contains resources explaining what to do in an emergency and lists the emergency contact information for both Whitman College and the Walla Walla community.

Institutional Factbook

Published by the Office of Institutional Research, the Institutional Factbook provides demographic information regarding students, faculty, staff, and financial characteristics from the past five academic years. The factbook is updated annually in the fall.

Print Services

The Print Services department handles printing requests for the campus community. They provide a variety of services, including business cards, T-shirts, posters, booklets, and more. To request either mailing or printing services, fill out and submit the Mailing and Printing Services Request Form. To promote your Whitman College event, complete the Whitman College Event Advertising Form. A comprehensive list of Print Services at Whitman is provided on the website.

This enables you to subscribe, unsubscribe, and get the digest version of various listservs, including Announcements, Community, Forsale, Lostandfound, Rides, and Students. You can also edit your mailing list settings here.

Official Whitman Logo

Under “Staff Links,” you can access Whitman’s logos, wordmarks, and college seal. The logos and wordmarks for Whitman College and the Blues can be downloaded and used for college-related communications. The Blues logo should only be used for athletic and spirit-related purposes.

“My Profile” Tab

The “My Profile” tab enables you to update information regarding your account and profile.

Campus Alerts

The Campus Alert System is utilized to notify students and employees of on-campus emergencies. By signing up with your phone number, you will receive automated text and/or voice messages to notify you in the case of an emergency. You can sign up for the Campus Alert System under the “My Profile” tab.

Change Preferred Name and Pronouns

You can update your preferred name and pronouns on this page. If you choose to enter a preferred name, that name will be displayed on all Whitman directories.

Update Emergency Contact Information

You can enter and update your emergency contacts on “My Profile.” While you can choose not to specify any, it is highly recommended to provide at least one emergency contact.

Campus Life

Looking for ways to participate in the Whitman College community? Below are several resources to help new employees get involved on campus and become familiar with the amenities Whitman offers.

Athletic Facilities

Outdoor Program

Want to become an outdoor person? Head over to the Outdoor Program (OP) to rent or purchase gear for your next adventure. The OP Rental Shop can be found in Reid Campus

WHITMAN COLLEGE

Center on the ground floor next to the campus post office. They have gear for your every outdoor need, including hiking, climbing, kayaking, and more.

Baker Ferguson Fitness Center (BFFC)

The Baker Ferguson Fitness Center (BFFC) is a private recreation center for the Whitman College community. It contains a variety of exercise equipment to satisfy your cardio and strength training needs. The BFFC is located at the intersection of Main Street and Park Street. To gain access, all you need is your WhitmanID card. More information about the BFFC, its protocols, and hours of operation can be found here.

Climbing Center

Located on the south side of the Sherwood Athletic Center, the Indoor Climbing Center is open to all students, faculty, and staff, as well as their family members and guests. The Climbing Center contains a large rockclimbing wall and a bouldering wall. Climbing gear can be rented on site for the duration of your climbing session. New to climbing? Have no fear! The Climbing Center offers beginning climbing classes to get started and open climb hours for beginners and experts alike to get some practice in.

Harvey Pool

The Louise and Paul Harvey Pool is an on-campus pool open to all Whitman College students, faculty, staff, and alumni. It is located inside the Baker Ferguson Fitness Center. Want to swim some laps? Just grab your WhitmanID card and come on down to the BFFC. More information about Harvey Pool, its protocols, and hours of operation can be found here.

Bookstore

Want to own your own Whittie Swag? Head on over to the Campus Bookstore on the ground floor of Reid Campus Center! You can purchase books, supplies, and other items from the Bookstore as well. The Bookstore will be operated by Barnes and Noble.

Events Calendar

Interested in attending events put on for the Whitman College community? The Events Calendar webpage contains announcements and up-to-date information about upcoming campus events. These include academic, departmental, and athletics events. Check out the website to see what events you can attend today.

Art Installations

For those interested in art, Sheehan Gallery hosts some of Whitman's latest art installations. Additionally, the Fouts Center for Visual Arts contains student exhibitions, details for which can be found on the Art Department website.

Sporting Events

Another way to get involved is to support the Blues by attending our campus sporting events. We host a variety of tournaments and games throughout the year, including baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, swimming, tennis, track, and volleyball. Information about Whitman's athletics teams, upcoming events, and the on-campus athletic facilities can be found on the Whitman Athletics website.

WHITMAN COLLEGE

Food Service on Campus

Whitman has several food service options on campus. Dine at Cleveland Commons or grab a quick snack at the Jewett Cafe or from the Reid Campus Center Store! This is a cashless campus, so bring a debit or credit card, or add Flex Dollars for spending on your Whitman ID card. You can add more Flex Dollars or view your Flex balance on myWhitman. For the current menus, visit the Bon Appétit website.

Mail Locations

The Whitman College Post Office is located on the ground floor of Reid Campus Center. Letters and packages can be shipped from the campus post office. There is also a blue mailbox on Boyer Avenue between Memorial Building and Prentiss Hall. Additional mailing services are available in Boyer House as part of the Office of Communications.

Penrose Library

Want to start a new book or research a topic for work? Visit Penrose Library to satisfy your library needs. Using the Sherlock search engine, you can find physical and virtual materials available through the library. If Penrose Library does not seem to have what you need, you can request materials from other libraries in the Pacific Northwest who participate in the Interlibrary Loan System. Checking library materials out is easy because your WhitmanID card is also your Penrose Library Card.

Staff Committees

Another way to become involved on campus is by joining one of the staff committees. Staff committees enable employees to participate in institutional committees and college governance. A list of all staff committees and their descriptions are listed here.

Budget Advisory Committee

The Budget Advisory Committee advises Whitman College in developing a budget that reflects the college's top priorities.

Staff Advisory Council

The purpose of the Staff Advisory Council is to "advise the President of the college on behalf of the staff, to improve communication and promote a respectful, civil, and engaged staff experience." They can be reached at sac@whitman.edu or anonymously through this Google form.

Whitman Today

Whitman Today is an email newsletter sent to all students, faculty, and staff at Whitman College that shares important updates and accomplishments in the community. As an employee, you are welcome to submit a personal or professional accomplishment, upcoming event information, or other content by emailing whitmantoday@whitman.edu. The newsletter is sent out every weekday during the academic year and twice a week during summer and winter breaks. More information about Whitman Today and how to make a submission can be found here. Previous issues of Whitman Today are archived on the Whitman College website.

WHITMAN COLLEGE

WhitmanID Card

Your WhitmanID card has several uses across campus. General information about the WhitmanID card can be found here.

Building Access

On campus, you can “swipe” in with your WhitmanID card to gain access to buildings. This includes academic, business, and athletic buildings. The athletic buildings include Sherwood Center (Racquetball! Basketball! Volleyball!) and the Baker Ferguson Fitness Center (Swimming! Weight Lifting! Treadmills!). You can use the Bratton Tennis Center and the Indoor Climbing Center as well. To view the latest hours and accessibility options, click here.

Lost or Stolen WhitmanID Card

If your WhitmanID card is lost or stolen, notify the Campus Security Office at (509) 527-5777 or x5777 to have your card access suspended. To have a replacement card made, contact the Security office. A replacement card costs $15.00.

Penrose Library Card

Your WhitmanID card is also your Penrose Library Card. Your library account has been automatically created and is ready for use. You can check out circulating materials such as books and movies from the library, as well as request items from other participating libraries. Through the library, you have extensive access to online sources. Visit the Penrose Library website to view all your options.

Walla Walla Community Information

Below are several resources to help you get to know Walla Walla, our community, and the best things to do in town!

- “A Place Like This” - An introductory video to Walla Walla, Washington.
- Visit Walla Walla - A website listing things to do in Walla Walla, including lodging, wineries, restaurants, and upcoming events.
