2. Statement of purpose:

The statement should clearly describe both the rationale and structure of the proposed program. Attach your statement of purpose to this application.

- The rationale should include the reasons for constructing an individually-Planned major and for combining the intended disciplines, the special subject matter which will be addressed in the interdisciplinary portion and reasons why selecting a standard or established combined major program with elective course work is less valuable than the proposed program.
- The statement should include comments on the appropriateness of each course to the planned major. It must fully describe the capstone course, and describe how it integrates the various facets of the proposed major. It must also address the comprehensive exam.
